The Shared Endeavour Fund

Groundwork London is delighted to continue to administer the Mayor of London's Shared Endeavour Fund (SEF) on behalf of The Mayor's Office for Policing and Crime (MOPAC). For Call Seven, grants of up to £100,000 will be available to support initiatives that challenge racism, hate, intolerance, extremism and radicalisation in London.

In January 2020, the Mayor of London, Sadiq Khan, launched the Shared Endeavour Fund, a grants programme to support civil society projects that:

- Strengthen communities against extremism,
- Encourage more Londoners to stand up to hate and intolerance,
- Safeguard Londoners vulnerable to radicalisation,
- Stop the spread of hateful and supremacist ideologies.

The Shared Endeavour Fund Call 7 application window will be closing in just over three weeks.
